In Touch with Endless Possibilities

Hong Kong's Unique Advantages

Institutional advantages under the “one country, two systems”

Role as a “super-connector”

Unique status of enjoying strong support of the country and being closely connected to the world

A significant role in the country's reform and opening up

Looking ahead

Actively seeking to enrich CEPA's content

Assisting the trade in making good use of CEPA's preferential measures

Better grasping the vast opportunities offered by the country's economic development and “dual circulation” strategy during the period of the National 14th Five-Year Plan

Serving our country's needs with our strengths

Fostering more prosperous and mutually beneficial economic development of the two places

Achieving “Joint Development and Shared Prosperity” with the country
